

---

Seminar 6

---

1. For the following sentences, draw a line beneath the adverbial clauses, and put a square box around any subordinators.
  - a) I get butterflies in my stomach whenever you say my name
  - b) Although she wasn't sure about the colour of the paint she was rather pleased with the final result
  - c) You can come to Tuesday's fitness class providing you bring your gym shoes
  - d) You should come to reception as soon as you can
  - e) The doorbell rang when she was having a bath
  - f) She was very at good acting even though she was quite a shy person
  - g) After the class had finished he went to grab a quick coffee
  - h) You can bring a mediator to the meeting as long as you tell me in advance
  - i) Since she was an expert in ju jitsu she had no difficulty dealing with unwanted advances
  - j) She wore the napkin so she wouldn't get the delicious soup down her dress
  - k) Unless you have a smart card you won't be able to get into the building
2. For the following sentences, put a box around the subordinating words, and a line beneath the dependent (subordinate) clauses. Then, below the dependent clauses write (a) the function of the dependent clause (A, Od, Oi, Cs, Co, P-mod), and (b) the word which chooses that clause as complement (if relevant) or the word which the clause modifies
  - a) Jack wondered whether he should take up the job offer
  - b) The computer she used for homework was getting old so she bought a new one
  - c) Unless you start working a bit harder you won't get a bonus
  - d) What you do in your spare time is no business of mine!
  - e) John's argument that because he was allergic to dust he couldn't do the cleaning didn't carry much weight with his housemates
  - f) Jason mulled over whether he should report his boss to the tax authorities
  - g) It's unusual that so many people have complained
  - h) Ali persuaded Chen that they should have a leaving do for Sarah
  - i) Sarah poured the milk on her cereal even though it was slightly off
  - j) The moment he walked through the front door he sensed that something had happened.
  - k) Juan was disappointed that he was too late to enter the race.
  - l) People who live in glass houses should not throw stones
  - m) While Amos loves oriental food two Chinese banquets in a row were too much for him
  - n) He who laughs last laughs longest

3. Label the tense/aspect of the following sentences

- a) She had always hated maths classes
- b) Hurry! They won't have started yet
- c) I've been studying now for ten solid hours!
- d) I don't eat meat
- e) Have you ever been to Monaco?
- f) She was laughing her head off!

4. How are the following sentences ambiguous?

- a) Somali Tied to Militants Held on U.S. Ship for Months Wikipedia example
- b) Landmine claims dog arms company Wikipedia example